Particulars of the Autopsy on the Body of the Dead Assassin.

The Autopsy.

(By Telegraph to the Sentinel.)

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The physicians who performed the autopsy were Dr. D. S. Lamb, J. F. Hartigan, and Z. T. Sauer. In addition to these physicians there were present Dr. Blum and son, Dr. Noble Young, Robert Reburn, A. E. McDonald, Johnson Elliott, A. H. McKim, P. J. Murphy, Charles H. Nicholas, Surgeon-General Barnes, of the army; Surgeon-General Wales, of the navy; Dr. W. A. Gidding, A. H. Wilmer and Clarke Patterson, of St. Elizabeth's asylum; Dr. D. O. Patterson, coroner of the district; O. A. Klein-schmidt, J. R. Hager, and Dr. Bird-sall and Parish. John W. Guitau and Rev. Mr. Hicks were present for a short time, but left the jail before the conclusion of the autopsy and returned to the city. About 8 o'clock a close examination of the body showed that Guitau's neck was broken, and that the rope had cut deep into the flesh of the neck. A reporter of the associated press was the only newspaper man admitted to the chapel, where the body was being dissected. The chapel is a spacious apartment, containing only a few benches and a table. The coffin was placed on a bench and the body removed, and after having been stripped was laid upon the table. Scales and other appliances for determining the weight and other phenomena of the different parts of the body were placed about on tables. The surgeons engaged in the autopsy were watched by the other medical gentlemen, who crowded about the table. After an examination of the eyes, the brain was removed and inspected. Dr. A. B. Loring found the left eye completely suffused with blood, and both eyes were so indistinct that no opinion could be formed of their condition or expression. Then the body was cut open, and a thorough and complete examination made with the view of determining all the physiological facts that could be of interest in connection with the case. The brain was found to be in a normal condition, and weighed forty-nine ounces. The heart weighed a little over nine ounces, and was in a healthy condition, as were all the other internal organs. Dr. MacWilliams, one of the first physicians to leave the room where the autopsy was held, said there was nothing so far as he could see about the brain that was abnormal. Its weight, according to Dr. MacWilliams, was forty-nine and one-half ounces. The general viscera, he said, were in perfect condition. At 3:55 the autopsy was adjourned until this evening, when the brain will be taken to the medical museum on Tenth street, where a more minute and critical examination will be made. The physicians were disinclined to go into the details in regard to the results thus far reached. Dr. Hartigan left the jail soon after 4 o'clock, taking with him Guitau's brain. Dr. Gidding, who has maintained that Guitau was insane, said when asked what the result of the autopsy was, "I have nothing to say now." Another physician remarked, "We are all known to the public." A bystander replied, "So be it, the public has a right to know what was thought at the time of the autopsy."

WASHINGTON, June 29, 1882.—To the Rev. William W. Hicks: I, Charles Guitau, of the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, now under sentence of death, which is to be carried into effect between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock on the 30th day of June, A. D. 1882, in the United States jail in said district, do hereby give and grant you my body after such execution: provided, however, it shall not be used for any mercenary purpose; and I hereby, for good and sufficient considerations, give, deliver and transfer to said Hicks my book entitled, "The Truth and the Removal," and the copyright thereof, to be used by him in writing a truthful history of my life and execution, and I direct that such history be entitled, "The Life and Work of Charles J. Guitau;" and I hereby solemnly proclaim and announce to all the world that no person or persons shall ever in any manner use my body for any mercenary purpose whatsoever. And if at any time any person or persons shall desire to honor my remains they can do it by erecting a monument, wherein shall be inscribed these words: "Here lies the body of Charles J. Guitau, patriot and Christian. His soul is in glory."

"CHARLES J. GUITAU."

Hundreds of acres of grain were entirely ruined. Horses and cattle were killed by lightning in every pasture. About $50,000 damage to the city and vicinity was inflicted. Miles of track of the Chicago and Alton road are impassable.

FORCING REPRESSION.

Stormy Session of the House of Commons—The Home Rule Members Suspended.

(By Cable to the Sentinel.)

LONDON, July 1.—The house of commons in committee, continued in session throughout the night, on clause 17 of the repression bill. At 7:30 o'clock this morning, Sir Wm. Harcourt, home secretary, said that time equivalent to two working days had been consumed in discussion of a clause secondary in importance. It would be for the house and country to say whether means must not be adopted to end this state of things. Parnell said the home rule members would appeal to their countrymen at home and abroad. He contended that no opposition could be more reasonably conducted against such atrocious measures. At 1:30 o'clock Dr. Lyon Playfair, chairman of the committee, said there had been deliberately planned obstruction to the business of the house. Messrs. Biggar, Colton, Collins, Dillon, Healy, Leamy, McCarthy, Morison, Metge, T. P. O'Connor, O'Donnell, Parnell, Power, Redmond, Seaton and Sullivan were then suspended and quitted the house. At 10:35 o'clock the chairman reported that O'Donnell had said that the statement of the chairman was infamous. Right Hon. Hugh O. Childers, secretary for war, gave notice he would move to reconsider O'Donnell's conduct on Monday, and it was agreed to take up the matter on that day.

A representative of THE SENTINEL was present at a banquet of democratic editors at the Grand hotel, Indianapolis, Thursday evening. The menu was elaborate and the after dinner toast and speeches sparkled with wit and good sense. The editorial meeting preceding the banquet and was very profitable to the journalists present.

Two men are going through adjoining counties offering charms for the prevention and cure of chills and fever for sale at fifty cents apiece.
The charms are small egg-shaped objects, neatly covered, and the cure was to be effected by the patient wearing one of them suspended around his neck next to the body. Strange to say the vendors disposed of quite a number. One woman bought one for each of her children, and as the charms open. It proved to consist of two brass thimbles, placed mouth to mouth and containing the dead body of a spider wrapped in a bit of rag.

Sudden Death of R. C. Wadge.
Last night about 9 o'clock, Richard O. Wadge retired to his bed at his residence, 186 Clay street. He had complained all day of pains in the heart. After retiring, he died almost immediately. By a singular coincidence, a telephone message announcing his death reached his brother-in-law, J. O. Pelletier, the undertaker, who was discussing the illness of deceased with his father, William Wadge. Deceased was about forty-seven years of age, and a native of England. He had been employed in the Pittsburg shops and was station agent for the company at Hobart for fifteen years. In 1870, he was elected joint senator on the republican ticket from Lake and Porter counties and served two terms. He has lately resided at the office of shipping clerk at Boecker, White & Co.'s spoke factory.
He leaves a widow and adopted daughter and other relatives here.
Deceased was a member of a number of fraternal organizations, among them, Knights of Labor, I. O. O. F., which will have the conduct of the funeral.

A PATROLMAN IN TROUBLE.
Charles of Michigan Patrolman Against Officer John
McCann, Who in Turn
Files an Affidavit for Provoke.

Yesterday afternoon, the police committee assembled quietly to investigate charges of intoxication while on duty, preferred against the well known patrolman, John McCann.
It appears, according to the story of W. H. Myers, the well known contractor, who lives at 164 180 Pittsburg avenue, that Patrolman McCann, night before last came by his house.
Mr. Myers' daughter and son were indulging in an innocent frolic on the sidewalk in front of the house and were inclined to be merry, though not apparently noisy. The officer, according to Mr. Myers, came up and censured the young people and roughly told them to refrain or to "run in." Mr. Myers' daughter at once endeavored to explain, assuring the officer that they had no intention of creating a disturbance, but if any blame attached it was to herself. Mr.
Myers hearing the discussion through the opened front window of his residence came out and took the part of his children saying to the officer: "I guess, John, you're drunk as usual," and using other harsh language to him, which he felt justified in doing under the circumstances. Yesterday charges of intoxication were preferred against the officer and McCann filed an affidavit for provoke against Mr.
Myers before Justice Ryan, which case was set for last evening, but postponed until 2 o'clock this afternoon.
The police committee reserved their decision until the conclusion of the provoke case.

Officer McCann is one of the oldest men on the force and has never before been before the committee on any such charge as this. He is an old man and somewhat apt to be irritable, but he denies strenuously the charge of Mr. Myers that he was intoxicated and claims he was justified in ordering the young people to stop their noise.

After His Boogie.

While Deputy Prosecutor Rodabaugh was at the police court this morning sneak thieves gained access to his office, over Eckert's meat market, and ransacked all the desks in hope of finding John's boogie, which is supposed to be large. They appropriated a valuable revolver, a "bluff boogie" of counterfeit money taken from "Rattlesnake Jack," a confidence man gobbled by the police some time ago, and some postage stamps, and with those articles the thieves made their exit and escape.

Deputy Sheriff Olausmeyer came up stairs while the thieves were at work. One was within and another outside the door on watch. Both were boys and told Olausmeyer coolly that Mr. Rodabaugh was at police court. The fellows left a $15 opera glass, a pair of valuable amethyst sleeve buttons and other valuables.
The police are after them.

Death of the Racine House Suicide.

Contrary to the expectation of the physicians and as intimated in a paragraph last night, M. Ross, the mysterious individual at the Racine house who swallowed morphine, succeeded in shuffling off yesterday afternoon.
The coroner's inquest avinced nothing new. The verdict was that the deceased came to his death by swallowing a dose of morphine with suicidal intent. A. G. Hensell, J. A. McKay and Dr. T. S. Virgil were the witnesses. The costs of the inquest were $18.75. No response has yet been received to the telegrams sent to the addresses left by Ross. The body lies at Schumann & Schoepman's undertaking establishment and will be buried at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the potter's field.

Points for the Peelers.

At a meeting of the police committee yesterday afternoon, it was decided that thirty days hence all patrolmen be clad in blue uniforms with helmets. An order was also passed that no patrolman be allowed to visit a saloon between the hours of 7 p. m. and 4 a. m. We understand that these orders will be strictly enforced by Chief Dohl, whose efforts to make the police force efficient and beneficial to the city are worthy the admiration of all.

A Female Beat.

A female giving her name as Mrs.
J. F. Larber, and her home as at Kork county, Nebraska, "struck" the township trustee for a pass to her western home yesterday. She is a miserable looking creature, and has a two-year old boy, and a few days old infant in arms. She said she had been seven months visiting relatives in Texas, and had a...

ALONG THE LINE.

Dr. Frothingham and Kingsley of the Grand Rapids English Medical and Surgical Institute, 65 Monroe street have arrived in our city and have established a branch at 24 West Main street, Aufrecht's block, Fort Wayne, where our many citizens under their treatment can consult with them; also any who may wish can obtain the benefit of their accurate diagnosis of their diseases without questions and free of charge, thus giving every one the privilege of their unprecedented experience in their specialty, without the heretofore long journey to their institute in Grand Rapids. For the past three years so frequent and important have the demands that they should personally visit their many patients in our city, and Northern Indiana, that they have by the accuracy of their diagnosis, which amount almost to intuition; they locate every ache and pain; explain how and why the disease or ailment was contracted, and demonstrate how it can be eradicated and in what length of time; these facts are only by their patients to be marvelous. The question is now, "Can we be cured?" Drs. F. & K. take no cases pronounced by them incurable, but to state the case to the patient. They have no time for experiments; their time is all occupied treating those they can cure.
A thousand testimonials from Grand Rapids can be seen at their office, some of which we would print had we room.

For Judge of the Supreme Court, Hon. Allen Zollars.

The Delphi Times says: "We notice that Hon. Allen Zollars, of Fort Wayne, will be a candidate for judge of the supreme court from that district. No more suitable selection could be made than Judge Zollars.
He is a lawyer of acknowledged ability and unquestioned integrity.
Having occupied the bench of the superior court of Fort Wayne, he would assume the dignified and important position of supreme judge in such a manner as to reflect credit on the bench and honor to his constituency."

The Marion Democrat says: "Judge Zollars and Mayor Zollinger, of Fort Wayne, were in Marion last week, attending the democratic congressional convention. Judge Zollars, who is a power in the democratic party, is a candidate for supreme judge, and his nomination would prove a source of great satisfaction to his many friends throughout the state, and more especially in the northern part, because, if nominated, his election is a foregone conclusion."

The Plymouth Democrat says:
"Hon. Allen Zollars, of Fort Wayne, is a candidate for supreme judge. He is a gentleman of ability and integrity and would fill the position to which he aspires with credit to himself and party."

Other's Misfortunes.

A French wit has said: "We are all strong enough to bear the misfortunes of others." A kindred sentiment is found in "Artemus Ward's" willingness to undergo all of his second cousins in the late war. But why endure the misfortunes of others? Why see others suffering in the midst of disease?
Why see liver broken down in health?
Why see nerves, hearing, and vision lost? We know that if we are suffering from any of these troubles, we can be cured by taking...
